Sector Heat Map

Hot Now

- Technology — Strong 1-month momentum (+15.8%) and positive across all timeframes.
- Healthcare — Consistent gains with 1d +1.2%, 5d +3.3%, and steady 1m +2.5%.
- Real Estate — Solid 5d +3.1% and 1m +1.4%, showing recent acceleration.

Cold but Worth Watching

- Communication Services — Negative across all timeframes, but potential for mean-reversion given tech strength.
- Materials — 1m -2.9% and flat 5d, but 1d positive suggests possible bottoming.
- Industrials — 1m -1.3% with recent 1d +0.7% could signal reversal.

Technology leads with strong momentum, while defensive sectors like Healthcare and Real Estate show resilience; cyclical sectors like Materials and Industrials are lagging but may see mean-reversion.

Daily Conclusion

Despite a broad market rally led by Technology, Healthcare, and Real Estate, the dominant macro theme is a cautious rotation away from cyclical and consumer-driven sectors, highlighted by weak entertainment demand and underperformance in Materials and Industrials.
