Sector Heat Map

Hot Now

- Technology — Strong 1-month momentum (+15.8%) and positive across all timeframes.
- Healthcare — Consistent positive returns with accelerating 5d (+3.3%) and 1d (+1.2%).
- Real Estate — Solid 5d (+3.1%) and 1m (+1.4%) gains, indicating recovery momentum.

Cold but Worth Watching

- Materials — Negative 1m (-2.9%) and flat 5d, but potential mean-reversion from oversold levels.
- Communication Services — Negative across all timeframes, but sector may stabilize as tech rotation fades.
- Industrials — Negative 1m (-1.3%) with weak 5d, but industrial activity could rebound.

Technology leads with strong momentum, while defensive and recovery plays like Healthcare and Real Estate gain traction; cyclical sectors like Materials and Communication Services lag but may see mean-reversion.

Daily Conclusion

Despite a broad market rally led by Technology, Healthcare, and Real Estate, the dominant macro theme is a cautious rotation away from cyclical and consumer-driven sectors, highlighted by a major franchise disappointment for Disney.
