Major Anomalies

UNG — Natural Gas ETF +6.35%

Cause: Natural gas prices surged amid geopolitical tensions in the Middle East, particularly concerns over Iran's nuclear program and potential disruptions to energy supplies through the Strait of Hormuz.

Forward Impact: Continued geopolitical risks could keep natural gas prices elevated, but any de-escalation or increased supply from other regions may lead to a correction.

Hot Now

- Technology — Strong momentum across 1d, 5d, and 1m with leading returns
- Healthcare — Consistent positive returns with defensive appeal
- Consumer Discretionary — Solid 5d and 1m performance despite moderate 1d

Cold but Worth Watching

- Energy — Sharp 5d decline may be overdone given stable oil prices
- Utilities — Negative 1m but positive 5d suggests potential reversal
- Financials — Underperformance relative to rising rates may reverse if rate expectations stabilize

Growth and defensive sectors lead while cyclical and rate-sensitive sectors lag, suggesting a risk-on but cautious market favoring quality and innovation.

Daily Conclusion

Global bonds are in turmoil due to the Iran war shock, while risk-on sectors like Technology and Healthcare thrive despite energy volatility.
