Hot Now

- Technology — Strong 1m performance and positive across all timeframes
- Healthcare — Strong 1d and 5d momentum with positive 1m
- Utilities — Strong 5d and 1d momentum despite negative 1m, showing recent reversal

Cold but Worth Watching

- Materials — Negative 1m and flat 5d, but positive 1d suggesting possible bounce
- Communication Services — Negative across all timeframes, but could be oversold
- Industrials — Negative 1m but positive 1d, potential mean-reversion

Technology leads with strong momentum, while defensive sectors like Healthcare and Utilities show recent strength; cyclical sectors like Materials and Communication Services are weak but may be due for a rebound.

Daily Conclusion

Rising risk-free yields are driving a rotation out of bonds and into defensive and growth sectors like Technology, Healthcare, and Utilities, while pressuring Materials, Communication Services, and Industrials.
