1. 2-year yield rises to highest since January 2025 after hot jobs report boosts expectations that the Fed could raise rates

CNBC — 2026-09-04 13:09

Treasury yields rose after a stronger-than-expected August jobs report (162,000 jobs added vs. 53,000 expected), with the 2-year yield hitting its highest since January 2025 at 4.377%. The 10-year yield rose to 4.784%, and traders now price a 58% probability of a Fed rate hike at the September meeting. Sticky inflation and a hot labor market support potential tightening.

2. What strong jobs data means for rates — plus, an out-of-favor trade shines this week

CNBC — 2026-09-04 18:51

Strong jobs data suggests the Federal Reserve may keep rates higher for longer, impacting equity valuations. An out-of-favor trade is highlighted as a potential beneficiary in this environment, though specific asset details are not provided in the summary.

3. Diesel hits record high as Ukraine and Iran wars knock out refineries, fueling inflation worries

CNBC — 2026-09-04 12:40

Diesel prices hit a record high, with U.S. national average at $5.85/gallon (up ~60% year-over-year) and $7.70 in California. Wars in Ukraine and Iran have disrupted ~8% of global diesel supply (2 million barrels per day), driven by Russian export bans and Middle East refinery shutdowns. Higher diesel costs are expected to feed directly into consumer inflation.

4. Oil slides on Friday, heads for weekly gain on US-Iran fight - Reuters

Reuters — 2026-09-04 01:28

Oil prices slid on Friday but are heading for a weekly gain due to escalating US-Iran tensions, which continue to pose supply risks in the region.

5. US equity funds record second weekly outflow on Iran tensions, high yields - Reuters

Reuters — 2026-09-04 13:05

US equity funds recorded a second consecutive weekly outflow, driven by investor concerns over Iran tensions and high Treasury yields, signaling risk-off sentiment.

6. Trump says US may hit Iran's Pickaxe Mountain soon - Reuters

Reuters — 2026-09-04 20:11

President Trump stated the US may soon strike Iran's 'Pickaxe Mountain' facility, escalating geopolitical tensions and adding to supply-side risk premiums in energy markets.

7. Gulf shipping traffic via Hormuz keeps below 10-day average, data shows - Reuters

Reuters — 2026-09-04 06:09

Shipping traffic through the Strait of Hormuz remains below its 10-day average, indicating persistent disruption to Gulf oil flows amid regional conflict.

8. US and allies push IAEA board to report Iran to UN Security Council, diplomats say - Reuters

Reuters — 2026-09-04 15:36

The US and allies are pushing the IAEA board to report Iran to the UN Security Council, increasing diplomatic pressure that could lead to further sanctions or conflict escalation.

9. US sanctions Turkish bank, two subsidiaries in latest pressure on Iran - Reuters

Reuters — 2026-09-04 18:22

The US imposed sanctions on a Turkish bank and two subsidiaries as part of renewed pressure on Iran, potentially affecting trade and financial flows in the region.

10. U.S. approves potential sale of Joint Direct Attack Munitions-Extend Range to Saudi Arabia for $5 billion - Reuters

Reuters — 2026-09-04 19:12

The US approved a potential $5 billion sale of JDAM-ER precision-guided munitions to Saudi Arabia, supporting regional military capacity amid heightened Middle East tensions.

Major Anomalies

BTC-USD — Bitcoin +5.14%

Cause: Bitcoin surged on positive sentiment from strong jobs data and increased institutional adoption.

Forward Impact: Momentum could continue if risk appetite remains, but regulatory news may trigger sharp corrections.

ETH-USD — Ethereum +4.87%

Cause: Ethereum rallied alongside Bitcoin, driven by broader crypto market optimism and network upgrades.

Forward Impact: Likely to follow Bitcoin's trend, with potential for higher volatility due to its smaller market cap.

SLV — Silver ETF +2.51%

Cause: Silver prices likely rose due to safe-haven demand amid geopolitical tensions and a weaker dollar.

Forward Impact: Expect continued volatility as geopolitical risks and monetary policy shifts influence precious metals.

UNG — Natural Gas ETF -2.42%

Cause: Natural gas fell on mild weather forecasts and ample supply, outweighing any geopolitical supply concerns.

Forward Impact: Prices may stay subdued unless extreme weather or supply disruptions occur.

Hot Now

- XLE — Energy shows strong momentum across 5d and 1m, likely driven by supply concerns and inflation hedging.
- XLV — Healthcare displays steady gains across all timeframes, benefiting from defensive demand and innovation.
- XLC — Communication Services has positive momentum across all periods, supported by stable earnings and media consolidation.

Cold but Worth Watching

- XLK — Technology has flat 1m but negative 5d, potential for rebound if earnings beat and rate expectations stabilize.

- XLI — Industrials have negative 5d and 1m, but 1d positive suggests possible short-term bounce from oversold conditions.
- XLRE — Real Estate has negative 5d and 1m, but 1d positive indicates potential mean-reversion as rate cut expectations rise.

Market shows rotation into defensive and energy sectors while cyclical and rate-sensitive sectors are under pressure, but short-term bounces in beaten-down sectors may occur.

Daily Conclusion

Risk assets are diverging sharply—commodities and crypto are surging while tech and rate-sensitive sectors are selling off—as a hot jobs report pushes the 2-year yield to its highest since January 2025, reviving fears of a Fed rate hike.
