🔥 Sector Heat Map

Hot Now

- Energy (XLE) — Broad-based leadership with +12.2% 1m and +2.7% 5d gains, strongest momentum across all timeframes
- Utilities (XLU) — Defensive bid with +7.7% 1m and +2.9% 5d, consistent positive momentum

- Consumer Staples (XLP) — Steady defensive outperformance at +7.2% 1m and +0.9% 5d, holding up well

Cold but Worth Watching

- Technology (XLK) — Worst 1m at -5.1% but sharp +1.7% 1d bounce hints at early mean-reversion
- Communication Services (XLC) — Deepest laggard at -8.1% 1m and -5.7% 5d, oversold with contrarian rebound potential
- Industrials (XLI) — Negative 1m at -2.0% yet strongest 1d at +1.4%, possible inflection

> Defensive and energy sectors lead as investors rotate toward inflation/commodity and safety plays while growth and cyclicals lag, though a nascent 1-day bounce in tech and industrials bears watching for rotation reversal.

💡 Daily Conclusion

> Defensive rotation into energy, utilities, and staples alongside tech and industrial weakness points to a risk-off, rate-sensitive market awaiting the Fed decision.
